

Jill Hinig Skapin

Director of Communications for
Summit County Executive Russell M. Pry

Presents

“Economic Development With a Flair!”

Ms. Skapin joined the county Auditor's Office of James B. McCarthy as a Public Information Officer in 1995. She was appointed Summit County Director of Communications in March 2001. The county's website was one of her top priorities and is now visited by over 1 million people each year. Under her Directorship, the department has received numerous national awards for design, outreach and speechwriting.

She currently serves on the following boards: Regional Arts & Cultural District, Emergency Management Executive Committee, Downtown Akron Partnership, The First Tee of Akron, and the Ohio & Erie Canal National Heritage Corridor Committee. She is also a member of the Akron Press Club.
